

SUPPORT SERVICES

1. General. Subject to Customer's compliance with its obligations under the Subscription Agreement or other master services or software license agreement agreed to by the parties, as applicable ("Agreement"), entered between Customer and Noma Security, Inc. ("Company"), during the term of the Agreement, Company will provide Customer with the maintenance and support services specified in this Services Level Agreement ("SLA"), for the Service (as such term is defined in the Agreement). Nothing in this SLA shall be construed as to require Company to dispatch personnel to Customer's site or otherwise provide on-site services. Capitalized terms not defined herein, shall have the meaning ascribed to such terms in the Agreement. Company reserves the right to change the terms of this SLA by providing Customer with at least thirty (30) days prior written notice. The sole and exclusive remedy for any failure to meet the standards set forth in this SLA shall be as expressly provided in the Agreement.
2. Definitions. The following definitions apply to this SLA:
 - "Downtime" or "Downtime Incident" means the time in which the Service is unavailable to the Customer as measured and determined solely by Company based on its servers. Downtime Incidents shall exclude: (i) planned downtime incidents announced in advance by Company, including without limitation, for periodic upgrade and maintenance; (ii) network disruption between a Customer's network and the Service outside of Company's control; (iii) Downtime Incidents that are caused by the SLA Exclusions specified below; and/or (iv) any time where Company is waiting for information from the Customer or waiting for Customer confirmation that the Service has been restored.
 - "Downtime Period" means the number of minutes in a calendar month during which the Service is unavailable to the Customer due to Downtime Incident(s).
 - "Monthly Uptime Percentage" means the monthly uptime expressed as a percentage, calculated based on the total number of minutes in a calendar month, minus the Downtime Period, divided by the total number of minutes in a calendar month.
3. Availability. During Customer's subscription term, Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to make the Service available with a Monthly Uptime Percentage of at least 99 % during monthly billing cycle ("Service Commitment").
4. Other SLA Exclusions. The SLA does not apply to any: (a) features or services which Customer did not purchase and/or are specified in the Service associated documentation as excluded; or (b) Downtime Incidents or failures that: (i) are caused by factors beyond Company's reasonable control (e.g., any force majeure event (including but not limited to strikes, shortages, riots, insurrection, fires, flood, storms, explosions, acts of God, war, government or quasi-governmental authorities actions, acts of terrorism, earthquakes, power outages, pandemic or epidemic (or similar regional health crisis)), failure of Internet access or any public telecommunications network, shortage of adequate power or transportation facilities or any other problems beyond Company's reasonable control etc.); (ii) results or outcomes attributable to repair, maintenance or modification of Company's software by persons other than Company's authorized third parties; (iii) resulted from accident, negligence, abnormal physical or electrical stress, abnormal environmental conditions, abuse or misuse of the Company's software; (iv) resulted from use of the Service other than in accordance with its manuals, specifications or documentation or in violation of the Agreement; (v) resulted from Customer's equipment, software or other technology and/or third party equipment, software or other technology (other than third party equipment within Company's direct control); and/or (vi) resulted from the combination of the Company's software with equipment or software not authorized or provided by Company's or otherwise approved by Company in the software's manuals, specifications or documentation.
5. Customer Support Services. Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the Service shall perform in all material respect with the Documentation. Company shall, during Business Hours, assist in the operation of the Service and in verifying the causes of suspected errors. Company will use commercial reasonable efforts to respond to Customer according to the response table specified after receipt of Customer's request for support.

6. Reporting Cases & Response Time
